Grand Piano Regulations

It will be the responsibility of the renting organization to specify details for the piano.

The rentee understands and agrees that this agreement may be revoked or cancelled at any time with or without cause and that in the event of such revocation or cancellation there would be no claim or right to damages, or reimbursement of any loss, damages or expense whatsoever.

Individuals or groups renting the piano other than for school district functions must complete and sign a rental agreement acknowledging that they have read and understood the following regulations concerning handling and use of the piano:

- 1) First priority for use of grand piano during school hours (7:00 am – 5:00 pm) will be to the Board. First priority for use of piano after school hours will be to the Creston Concert Society. Second priority will be given to other qualified individuals/groups/organizations on a first come basis.
- 2) Only responsible persons who have completed a training session on handling the piano will be assigned to supervise moving and set-up of the piano.
- 3) A minimum of two (preferably three) adult persons (not students) will be used to move the piano.
- 4) Protective clothing will be provided and must be used at all times when moving the piano.
- 5) The piano will remain covered while being moved to and from storage area.
- 6) The piano will be placed in the allocated, locked storage area after each rehearsal and/or performance. If the piano is to be used by the same renter later in the day (other than school days) it may be left on the stage until the last performance of the day, provided it is covered with the cover provided.
- 7) No modifications to the piano will be permitted.
- 8) No attachments to the piano will be permitted.
- 9) Absolutely nothing but music and designated lamp must be set on piano.
- 10) The grand piano will not be moved from stage level.
- 11) Tunings: Individuals or groups requiring any special tunings over and above regular arrangements provided by the Board will be charged directly for these costs. This will include any costs required to have the piano returned to the original tuning. Only the qualified technician approved by the Board will be permitted to tune or make tuning changes.
- 12) Rental and Rates: Rental of the grand piano is the responsibility of the Board and regulations and rates will be determined by the committee of Board and Concert Society representatives based on tuning and maintenance costs each year.
