- 3. Minutes of Feb 13, 2023. Justine moved acceptance, seconded by Emily. Carried.
- 4. Presentation by Bo Ashe regarding trip to Oaxaxa, follow up at next meeting.
- 5. Treasurer's Report as of March 10th:
  - a) General Account $931.81 available
  - b) Gaming Account $17,731.01 balanceApril, moved acceptance, seconded by Greg. Carried.
- 6. Student Representative – Amber - prom fundraising letter provided.
- 7. Principal's Report
  - a) Question regarding sinks to support production of food for students. Planning for upgrades.
  - b) Dance – waiting for a date to be confirmed.
  - c) Hardship & Feeding Futures Funds – support families who can't pay fees and misc. needs as needed.
  - d) Surveys are coming – Sustainability Policy Survey and Budget Survey for parents to complete.
  - e) Pancake breakfast confirmed for this Thursday.
  - f) School fees for next year are as follows:
    - i. Instrument classes $25
    - ii. Student Activity $30

- iii. Auto shop $30 for consumables
- iv. Metal/wood shop $30 for consumables
- v. Foods $15 for grade 8, $29 for grades 10-12
- vi. Art $10 for grade 9, $15 grades 10-12
- vii. Grad $75
- viii. Sports $75 max $125 per student, max family $200
- ix. Class trips $3
- x. Skiing $50-$75 depending on rentals
- xi. Sports tournaments $50+ per accommodation

- g) Homeroom no longer in effect after spring break, timetable changes with new bell schedule.
- h) Parent teacher conferences – working on communicating learning to parents for the year. Cannot provide evening meetings. Working on providing afternoons over 2 days possibly. Early dismissal days are being planned for next year. PAC provided input: parents want more informal face to face contact/communication with teachers and interim updates. Problematic for working parents to not have availability of evening meetings.
- i) Grad – number of tickets provided per family discussed. Asking for additional communication regarding numbers of tickets per person. Grad June 14th 7pm.
- j) Course selection for next year is complete.

8. Discussion Items – (b)-(g) please see discussion covered in Principals Report above.

a) Funding requests

- i. Prom request for funding to support costs and reduce the price of student tickets. Approved $1500. Grads can come back if they need additional funds. Moved by Jen, seconded by Crystal.

Greg and Crystal agreed, would be great for Homelinks PAC to also receive request.
